THAT LITTLE OLD LIE.

"Oh, what a tangled web we weave
When first we practise to deceive!"
He told his wife a lie, one day—
A little lie—about the way
In which he'd carried on and so.
She was not slow to hear and see.

The lie was white and very small—
It need not have been told at all—
Yet he is forced to lie by day
And while the evenings wear away
For every word he utters now
Brings up that little lie, somehow!

The Best Promoter.

The carefully prepared and well displayed advertisement is the most important "promoter." It "sells" more people in one day than the average human promoter can interview in the whole of his professional career. It appeals to the reader directly and convincingly, and catches the eye and holds the attention. It is the most efficient of all. The wise business man employs the most potent agent to strengthen and increase his business.

Special Request.

Our unimportant advertisements appearing in the columns of this paper, or when buying goods from a merchant whose advertisement appears in this paper, our readers are especially requested to state that they use the advertisement in the Public Ledger. This will cost you nothing, and it will be gratefully appreciated by both the advertiser and the Editor.

FATALITY INJURED.

Accidental Discharge of a Gun Wounds Lewis County Man.

Jesse Woods of Quincy, Lewis county, was so badly injured a few days since by the accidental discharge of a shotgun that he will die.

Woods and several companions were drifting in the Ohio river.

Leaving against a log on the bank was an old shotgun, the muzzle pointing directly at Woods.

Suddenly the weapon was discharged and he received the contents in the abdominal cavity, causing a frightful wound.

The discharge of the gun was caused by it slipping, the butt striking a rock.

THE LEDGER is for the home merchant and "forerunner" the itinerant peddler every day in the year; but some of the home merchants are woefully wanting in appreciation.

False Economy.

Ask the Merchant who does not use the columns of "THE PUBLIC LEDGER" why he does not advertise, and nine times out of ten he will tell you that he can't afford it. Foolish man! Let him try the experiment, and unless all experience fails he will get his money back fourfold. Suppose you try it!

NOVEL SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

Man Thrown From Mule—Sues Railroad For $10,000 Only.

Abolished Independent.

Dr. T. Mullen of Ceredo, well known here, has entered suit against the N. and W. Railway for $10,000.

His claim for damages is a novel one. He states that he was on a mule and was on the South side of the N. and W. Railway, on what is known as the Broad Hollow road, near Ceredo; and, on account of a train tying on the track over the crossing, was compelled to wait a long time before he could cross. While waiting, his mule became frightened at the train and threw him across the horn of his saddle, injuring him severely, the sciatic nerve of his left leg being injured to such an extent that he often falls to the ground while walking.

[Of course, the Jury will decide that the Railway Company is to blame. It would be just the same if the Doctor had fallen off a mule a mile high and skinned his nose by alighting in one of the counties through which the road passes.—ED. LEDGER.]

MUST LOSE THEIR JOBS.

Reduction of Internal Revenue Employs the First of April.

The reduction by Congress of the stamp tax imposed on revenue purposes has been understood to carry with it a very considerable reduction in the forces of the Collectors of Internal Revenue throughout the country, but it was not believed that the change would go into effect until July 1 next, at the beginning of the new fiscal year.

Commissioner Yerkes has, however, ordered a sweeping reduction to take effect on the 1st of April and Collectors have been notified of the number of men they must release at the close of the present week.

Collector Roberts has been ordered to reduce his office force to the extent of one $1,200 Deputy and his field force one $1,200 General Deputy, a cutting off of $2,400 in salaries and $600 in traveling expenses.

The reduction in general or traveling Deputies affects either George W. Cagle of Carter county, or Laban T. McClure of Lawrence county, one of whom must be dropped.

The reduction in the Collector's office at Lexington will be made by the transfer of J. N. Shawhan to the office of the Commissioner of the Internal Revenue at Washington.

By no means the crowd that the show deserved was at the Operahouse last evening to see Charles B. Hanford in "Private John Allen," but what was lacking in number was made up in enthusiasm. The company was a very fine one, Mr. Hanford being an actor of exceptional ability. The show was among the best seen here this season.

The Ohio is falling as far down as Pt. Pleasant, and is rising below that point.

Argand passed up with Price's new showboat in tow. It was recently built at Leavenworth.

The Indiana now goes to Manchester on week days, and on Sunday her trips are extended to Ashland.

The White Collar Line has experienced much difficulty in handling freight at Ironton, and to obviate this difficulty in the future, has decided to place a wharftoat there. It will be 175 feet long and 40 feet wide, and for the exclusive use of the White Collar Line and the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati Packet Company's boats. This is the first time a wharftoat has ever been placed at Ironton by the White Collar Line, and the improvement was necessitated by increased volume of river shipping business. The steamer Indiana, which extends her trade to Ironton, beginning last Sunday, will use the new wharftoat, and there will be a boat out of Cincinnati every day for Ironton next week and thereafter.

The Urania now goes to Huntington. She passes up tonight.

The Keystone State will be up tonight for Wheeling and Pittsburgh.

Take a cup of Arbuckles' Coffee and a cup of the "cent-a-pound-cheaper" kind. One taste of each will prove to you that the reason Arbuckles' costs a little more is because it's worth more. It's selected with greater pains, roasted with greater care, packed with greater skill. It comes to you as fresh as when it left the roaster. Not a particle of its strength or flavor lost. Cheap coffee lacks both strength and flavor.

ARBUCKLES' Roasted Coffee is cheaper in the end than other coffees because it makes more cups to the pound and gives far greater satisfaction.

With each package of Arbuckles' Coffee you purchase a definite part of some useful article—which is yours on presentation to our Notion Dept. of a certain number of signatures cut from the wrappers. You'll find a list of the articles in each package.

When any church will inscribe over its altar, as its sole qualification of membership, the Savior's condensed statement of the substance of both law and Gospel, 'Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy neighbor as thyself,' that church will I join with all my heart and with all my soul."
